

Summer Reading

Booker T. Washington High School 2016/2017 Seniors Taking English IV

Students taking English IV will read the following book:

- The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Nighttime by Mark Haddon
Christopher John Francis Boone knows all the countries of the world and their capitals and every prime number up to 7,057. He relates well to animals but has no understanding of human emotions. He cannot stand to be touched. And he detests the color yellow.

This improbable story of Christopher's quest to investigate the suspicious death of a neighborhood dog makes for one of the most captivating, unusual, and widely heralded novels in recent years. (www.amazon.com)

We recommend that you:

- purchase or check out the book early. Book stores and libraries may be in short supply in late summer.
- go in together with two or three friends to share the expense.
- Purchase a used book online or download an ebook.
- TAKE NOTES AS YOU READ!

We will be working with the book when you begin school in August, so you must have the book read and be ready to begin classroom assignments the first day of school.
